A Few Stray Facts from the

People's Speakers. WHAT LIBERAL RULE MEANS

Four Rousing Meetings in Behalf of th People's Candidates-The Programm For this Evening.

The People's party may have been little late, slightly backward in coming for-ward, so to speak, but they get in some good work in four wards of the city hast evening—the First, Fourth, Fifteenth and leventeenth-all of which meetings were well attended, and were marked by great is a fair sample of what we may expect. When they went into office there was $4,000 in the treasury. When they retired by order of the court—for they would not get out without it—the country was from ten thousand to twelve thousand dollars in debt, and the scrip was worth from the thousand to twelve thousand dollars in debt, and the scrip was worth from the thousand to twelve thousand dollars in debt, and the scrip was worth from the thousand to twelve thousand dollars in debt, and the scrip was worth from the form the following the sent understood that the election was to be held at a certain place, but at a inte bour the day before the election the polling place was removed to a point known only to the Liberais, and when the election was over the ballot-box was stuffed so full that it was impossible to get another ticket in it. Now, I do not mean to say that there are no seed men in the Liberai party, there are now in the therail with who are bon rable gentlemen, with whom, should they set into office, your means and property units be safe; but, let me tell you, these re not the men who will fill the offices in he case of a liberal victory. (Applause,) I is the stump speakers, the hintherskites, he fellows who are going the roundary sylling their throats sore, who will fill be offices, or, if they do not, there will be biggest split that was everease; in well be they had so they selze upon this grievance. The speeches that have been made by one of their crators are, I believe, doing more good for the People than harm. One of the leading speakers on the other ide has said that the city council had disappropriated $1,000,000 in fifteen years, so same man will believe this. I happen to move something about the city finances systef, and I would ask bin and others if hey have not noticed in the city papers.

never intend to futilli. Suppose these men-ind control of the legislature. What would be the result! The same tactics that are now being adopted in Idaho would be fol-lowed here—and no one who ever voted the People's ticket would ever be allowed to approach the ballot box. Every one of you before me to aight would be distranchised. The power that moves the Idaho mob em-mates from this city.

At the conclusion of the speaker's re-aaris, the Liberal fife and drum band, Politics with the People's party are in their infancy, and I feel a little out of place in occupying the stand this evening. We have beard recited to us this evening many of the dodges of the Liberal party. They say we want water; they want whisky. They are shouting for a higher rate of tax. Now let me shew you just how our taxes are progressing; in 1886, our taxes were $150,000; in 1887, $102,000; in 1888, $222,000. Now I would like to ask you, you poor men, whether you 1886, our laxes were $150,000; in 1887, $192,000. In 1888, $220,000. Now I would like to ask you, you poor men, whether you can afford to have your taxes increased at a faster rate than they are now being raised! I say no. The tax rate of Ogden under Liberal rule—was made up and presented to the city council by the assessor; they told him to double the list; he did so, and they then made a higher rate than ever before. The Liberals say we have done much. Our city and county is now in a position where we can progress faster in the next ten years than we have in the past forty. We may be a little slow in getting there, but as the late Governor Murray used to sat, we will get there just the same. Very few of the howlers own any property. Even the name of my friend, Judge Powers, does not appear on the tax roll; and when he steps out of doers his hat covers all that he has got in this city. Let us stay with the People's party; let us carry, the next election by a hig majority and show the Liberals under. (Wild applaanse) was received with a round of applaanse that fairly shook the building, and he delivered one of his characteristic speeches, which here one is the party he doubt the beauty of the fairly shook the building, and he delivered fone of his characteristic speeches, which here one is a fairly shook the building, and he delivered fone of his characteristic speeches, which here of the most uprogrous man.

James H. Moyle by C. E. Allen, to the effect that Moyle had hilled the free school bill, and showed that several misstatements had been made in the speech made by Mr. Allen on the previous evening. It will be a sorry day for Utah that sees it under Liberal control. He closed his remarks by relating an anecdote alleged to have occurred many years ago, when New Jersey was supposed to be a cery bad state. A voung man, whose business called him thither, got his family around him. Taking his father by the hand, he said: "Good-byc, father, I am going to New Jersey." he placed his arms around his mother and murmured. "Good-by, mother, I am going to New Jersey." To each of his brothers and sisters he gave the same farewell. Then, just before leaving the paternal roof, he raised his hands to heaven, and said: "Good-by, God, I am going to New Jersey." So it will be so far as this territory is concerned, under Liberal rule. Whenever a man from the cast, west or south intends to come to Utah be will follow the example of the young man and say, "Good-by God, I am going to Mext or south intends to come to Utah."

He closed amid deafening applause:
Mr. Sloan was followed by Heber Bennion and George M. Cannon, when there were loud calls for "Moyle."

The Programme of Meetings. wards, at the usual places of holding meetings therein, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp TO-NIGHT

JAMES H. MOTLE

The gentleman then stepped forward and delivered a most impressive and carnest address. He had been becomed with the nomination for the council, for which he was thankful, yet he had no great hopes of being elected. The Liberals had never formalisted a pian nor urged a movement that was not to the detriment of the people. A man named Alieu, who came here a few years ago as an adventurer and to cated in one of the mining camps, had charged that I was unfair my action concerning a certain educa-

There was a rousing meeting here also, the speakers being M. Kimball, Frank Hyde, E. A. Folland, John Nicholson and F. S. Richards. The reporter detailed for the occasion had failed to materialize at the time we went to press, or a more ex-tended notice would have appeared.

was first introduced. We are opposing a foe that is particularly alive to its privileges, which is making promises that it never intends to fulfil, because their fulfillment is impossible. Selfish motives prompt every act. He refuted the statement made by Judge Powers in reference to the fluamees of the city—the misappropriation of the city funds—claimins that Salt Lake had more to show in proportion for taxes than had the city of New York. If the Liberals were to obtain course of Utah every member of the People's party would be disfranchised. It remained for the people to decide whether they will labor and serve the minority out, or whether they will uphold the most honest and capable city government any city in the land can boast of.

JAMES IL MOYLE

The meeting throughout was a most pirited one, and cannot but be productive I good results.

There was an attentive and interested adience at the First ward last night. The seeting was called to order and John Siddowny was elected chairman, John T. Thorp chaplain, and Fred Bouliridge secretary. The chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to lay before the people the principles of the Populo's party, and introduced as the first speaker.

the ordander toung, who said in substance: I have had occasion heretofore to speak to nudiences in this neighborhood, and to talk again would seem to retierate what I have previously said. I am not here to berake any person who does not believe as I do, but I think it no more than right that the people should know my opinion on the questions which are being discussed. I have nover been a politician, never having had the time, in fact, our people iend busy lives and have had no time to devote to politics. The cause probably is that we have always had the supremary; we may look back giver the past and see things we do not like, or there may be other causes for this agitation. The principles by which we are governed are embodied in that great document the Declaration of Independence: "All men are born free and equal." A nooler sentiment has never been exporsed my makind. The speaker then went on and gave a synopsis of the government.

Shoulder braces at Crismon-Scarf Co's* LE GRANDE TOUNG, by mankind. The speaker then went on and gave a synopsis of the government, defining it as an organized society for the protection of the minority, as the majority can always take care of itself. The people are the supreme power and the officers are but servants. (Cheers.) Ours is a government by the people and for the people, in whom are vested the sovereign rights. I am opnosed to centralization and At the conclusion of the speaker's remarks, the Liberal life and drum band, which had been stationed on the outside, struck up. It was rewarded with a heavy round of applause, which was evidently taken for an encore, as they insisted on giving "Yankse Doodle."

LEGNARO 6. HARDY.

Takitha with the Possic's party are in the control of t ments or oppose the sentiments of that noble document which announces that all men were created free and equal, but at the time, over a hundred years ago, there were many who were diametrically opposed to it, and those who lived across the water, knowing the struggle that must take place lauched at the idea. A list of reasons was riven why this declaration was made, but the proper one was not in the list. In looking back on that time it appears to me that the reason is that as they came to this mighty country when its likes were as oceans, and everything was on a grand scale, they were inspired by this sublime scale, they were inspired by the sublime scale, they were inspired by this sublime scale, they were inspired by the scale and have you received any good from those who have injured us! When I became a candidate I did not know it two hours before. I did not know it two hours before. I did not know to the for other members of my party.

I think I can spend my money as well as they can. He then cited the instance of Liberal rule in Toocle county, in which the county funds were recklessely spent and they were in debt $8,000 and were thousands of dollars short. What did they do with the money? ("They voted it to the temple," came from a voice in the audience). After speaking of Ogsten's rule and what would be done in Salt Lake, he closed. Charles W.
